

Publishing Services for Academic and Scholarly Books

The University Press and academic publishing community relies on Westchester every step of the way, from author manuscript to final print and digital formats. Publishers know they can count on us for excellence delivered.

Projects can be managed from our New Delhi, India office, or our Danbury, Connecticut headquarters.

Our services include:

Full Service Editorial and Project Management

- Project management by an experienced production editor
- Copyediting
- Proofreading
- Indexing
- Castoff and sample pages
- Schedule and budget preparation and maintenance
- Communication with author
- Ongoing publisher liaison
- Illustration programme management

Composition Services

- Pre-edit Microsoft® Word styling
- Westchester standardised tagging system
- Layout and typesetting
- Adobe® InDesign®
- PTC Arbortext®(3B2)
- LaTeX
- Maths
- 4-colour
- Art and graphics
- Design

Art Services

- Relabeling
- Rendering
- Colour and tonal adjustment

Digital Conversion

- eBooks, including reflowable and fixed-format files
- XML services
- Customised PDF's and XML files for distribution platforms including Atypon, HighWire, JSTOR, Project MUSE, and Silverchair

Experience the Difference

Specialised Capabilities:

White papers
Academic trade publications
University Press publications
Author liaison
4-colour textbooks

Representative Clients:

American Society for Microbiology
Class Publishing
Columbia University Press
Duke University Press
Edinburgh University Press
Edward Elgar Publishing
Harvard University Press
John Hopkins University Press
Mary Ann Liebert Inc
The MIT Press
NYU Press
Pluto Press
Princeton University Press
Rutgers University Press
Schwabe Group
UCL Press
University of Buckingham Press
University of West Indies Press
W.W. Norton
Yale University Press

“As publishers, we're long-term relationship people. It's a real asset to work with peers who have been with some of the same companies and experienced the same industry transitions, workflows, and technology experiments. There's a comfort level there”

—Nancy Hoagland, Books EDP
Director, Duke University Press